

The Swarovski Crystal Star

Swarovski created by Daniel Swarovski in 1862, produces glass sculptures, miniatures, jewels, rhinestones, decorations and objects for the home, chandeliers and materials for precision optics.

The first statuette that Swarovsky produced was a stylized mouse. The smaller version of this mouse is still sold today.

The page features decorative illustrations in the corners. The top right corner has a branch with red berries and purple grapes. The bottom left corner has a large pink lily flower, a red rosehip, and a branch with orange and red leaves. The bottom right corner has a branch with orange and red leaves and a red rosehip.

*Swarovski was also one of the sponsors of the film The Phantom of the Opera by Joel Schumacher, in which the famous chandelier was created with Swarovski crystals*