

The forget-me-not flower

The forget-me-not flower is usually deep blue in color, but they can also be pink and white

The story of this beautiful flower originates from two very similar legends, one Greek and the other Austrian.

The Austrian legend has it that one day two lovers, while walking along the Danube exchanging promises and tenderness, they were fascinated by the large quantity of blue flowers that were carried by the current.

The young man, in an attempt to collect some of these flowers for his beloved, was swallowed up by the waters, shouting "Never forget me!"

flowers became the symbol of fidelity and eternal love.

Even today it is customary to give "Don't forget me" on special occasions, anniversaries,

The image features decorative floral elements in the corners. In the top right corner, there is a branch with clusters of red and purple berries. In the bottom left corner, there is a large pink lily flower with green leaves and a stem with several red rose hips. In the bottom right corner, there is a branch with orange and red leaves and a small pink flower bud.

*at birthdays and the message is to demonstrate eternal love or a great affection that will last over time
